Who doesn't love a beautiful home? Throughout the years, Tatler Philippines has toured multiple abodes—from modernist mansions to art-deco inspired penthouses to refurbished villas and fortresses. Today, we're looking back on some of the chicest, most beautiful bedrooms we've come across on our world tour of inspiring homes.

1. Bangkok, Thailand

Located above the bustling metropolis of Bangkok, this penthouse at the St Regis hotel has all the elements for a dreamy abode; its interior is the work of Singapore-based firm Design Intervention. But what truly stands out is this spacious master bedroom. It features an awe-inspiring panorama of the city below, alongside lush furnishings that include wooden elements, soft carpeting, and a unique abstract pattern on the ceiling.

Designed by Timothy Corrigan, this bedroom is one that is fit for royalty—and in fact, is this master bedroom was made for the mistress of the house, a member of a Qatari royal family. Calming shades of muted pink and white decorate the four walls, drawing the viewer's attention to the luxurious four-poster bed and crystal chandelier. Though the colour palette remains to be simple, this chic bedroom remains to be as elegant and luxurious as can be.

A tropical getaway is what Summer Thornton's clients wanted when they asked her to take charge of this beautiful Naples home. Inspired by the colourful nostalgia of the area, Thornton decorated the bedroom with mint-green de Gournay wallpaper featuring floral elements, alongside a feminine peach coloured four-poster bed and bright yellow curtains. A closer look at the wooden furniture will reveal carved detailing of vines and flowers along its surface.

New Delhi may be overwhelming for some—with all its exciting tastes, smells, and sensations, the city is ever-throbbing with adventure and dynamism. Perhaps this is why French firm, Liaigre, designed this metropolitan abode in minimalist styles and colours. Frauke Meyer, the mind behind the interior design of the home, chose to simplify the bedroom with white walls, wooden ceilings, Mante wall sconces, and a custom-made bed frame featuring simple yet striking silhouettes.
